There's something truly magical about Hull in winter. As the evenings draw in and the lights start to twinkle across the skyline, the city transforms into a haven of festive cheer, live entertainment, and cozy hideaways. Whether you're wandering through Christmas markets, catching your favourite band on tour, or indulging in hearty seasonal food, Hull is the perfect place for a winter getaway. And when it comes to somewhere to stay? Guestz offers stylish, fully furnished serviced accommodation across Hull – giving you all the comfort of home with the luxury touches of a hotel. So, unpack your bags, grab a hot drink, and let's explore what's happening in Hull this winter. r

A City That Shines: Winter Events & Festivities

The festive season in Hull kicks off with The Paragon Arcade Christmas Trail, filling the arcade with twinkling lights and transforming it into a Christmas spectacle. Wander through the Arcade and admire the festive fun.

If you're visiting in December, don't miss, The Lord Mayor's Christmas Tree Festival, one of the highlights of the winter calendar. Expect over 50 decorated Christmas trees fill up the church. The trees have been decorated by locals, businesses and organisations; all raising money for the Lord Mayor's Charity Appeal Fund. It's an event that captures the warmth and creativity of Hull, even on the coldest evenings.

For something a little different, head to Burton Constable Hall where your expert guide will help you explore hidden corners of the hall that aren't usually open to the public. Finish the tour with a cream tea in the Stables Kitchen and chat about how people celebrated Christmas in the 1850s. Wherever you go, there's an unmistakable buzz in the air that makes Hull feel alive during winter.

Music, Theatre & Winter Nights Out

Winter in Hull isn't just about markets and lights – it's also a fantastic time for live entertainment. This season, you can catch the Christmas Adult Panto at Comedy Lounge or see The Wizard of Oz light up the stage at the Middlechild Theatre.

Whether you're into indie gigs, classical concerts, or laugh-out-loud comedy nights, Hull's venues have something for everyone. And the best part? Many of our Guestz apartments are just a short stroll or quick ride away, so you can enjoy a night out without worrying about long journeys back in the cold.

Exploring Hull: Winter Attractions & Hidden Gems

If you're more of a daytime explorer, there's plenty to discover beyond the festive events. Take a crisp winter walk through the Queen's Gardens or visit the Streetlife Museum for a dose of culture. Many attractions host special winter exhibitions or themed experiences – perfect for when you want to stay warm indoors.

Families will love Breakfast and Afternoon Tea with Santa at Burton Constable Hall, while couples might enjoy carols at Hull City Hall.

And after a day of exploring? Retreat to your Guestz apartment, pour yourself a warm drink, and relax in your own spacious living area – the perfect end to a winter's day.

Eat, Drink & Get Cosy

One of the best things about winter in Hull is the food. From festive feasts to comforting pub classics, there's no shortage of places to indulge. Head to Humber Fish Co for seasonal dishes made with local ingredients, or pop into the Wonky Tulip Coffee House for a hot chocolate (or a glass of mulled wine – we won't tell!).

If you're in the mood for something lively, The Lexington Rooftop Bar & Terrace is the place to be – especially on weekends when local musicians set the tone for the evening.
