There's something truly magical about North Wales in winter. As the evenings draw in and the lights start to twinkle across the skyline, the region transforms into a haven of festive cheer, live entertainment, and cozy hideaways. Whether you're wandering through Christmas markets, catching your favourite band on tour, or indulging in hearty seasonal food, North Wales is the perfect place for a winter getaway.

And when it comes to somewhere to stay? Guestz offers stylish, fully furnished serviced accommodation across North Wales – giving you all the comfort of home with the luxury touches of a hotel. So, unpack your bags, grab a hot drink, and let's explore what's happening in North Wales this winter.

A Region That Shines: Winter Events & Festivities

The festive season in North Wales kicks off with the Caernarfon Christmas Market, filling the streets with the scent of roasted chestnuts, mulled wine, and cheerful chatter. With twinkling lights, handmade gifts, and local food stalls, it's the perfect spot to get into the Christmas spirit – or to pick up a few presents.

If you're visiting in December, don't miss the Christmas Village & Magical Light Trail at Manorafon Farm Park in Abergele, one of the highlights of the winter calendar. Expect an immersive light experience and marshmallow toasting, perfect for all the family. It's an event that captures the warmth and creativity of North Wales, even on the coldest evenings.

For something a little different, Zipmas at Zip World offers a more thrilling feel, showcasing an underground train diving over 500 feet below ground into the breath-taking Welsh Slate Mines. Here, you can explore an enchanting maze where Santa and his elves will be waiting to greet you. Wherever you go, there's an unmistakable buzz in the air that makes North Wales feel alive during winter.

Music, Theatre & Winter Nights Out

Winter in DESTINATION isn't just about markets and lights – it's also a fantastic time for live entertainment. This season, you can catch your favourite tribute band at The Trivoli in Buckley or see Sleeping Beauty light up the stage at The Pavillion Theatre in Rhyl.

Whether you're into indie gigs, classical concerts, or laugh-out-loud comedy nights, North Wales' venues have something for everyone. And the best part? Many of our Guestz apartments are just a short stroll or quick ride away, so you can enjoy a night out without worrying about long journeys back in the cold.

Exploring North Wales: Winter Attractions & Hidden Gems

If you're more of a daytime explorer, there's plenty to discover beyond the festive events. Take a crisp winter walk along the Llanduno Pier or visit the Airworld Aviation Museum in Caernarfon for a dose of culture. Many attractions host special winter exhibitions or themed experiences – perfect for when you want to stay warm indoors.

Families will love Reindeer Lodge Festival (where you can meet Santa), while couples might enjoy a relaxed afternoon strolling along Colwyn Bay Beach, watching The Great Orme sparkle.

And after a day of exploring? Retreat to your Guestz apartment, pour yourself a warm drink, and relax in your own spacious living area – the perfect end to a winter's day.

Eat, Drink & Get Cosy

One of the best things about winter in North Wales is the food. From festive feasts to comforting pub classics, there's no shortage of places to indulge. Head to Dylan's for seasonal dishes made with local ingredients, or pop into Haus for a hot chocolate (or a glass of mulled wine – we won't tell!).

If you're in the mood for something lively, The Park is the place to be – especially on weekends when local musicians set the tone for the evening.
